

Golden Gate Park

Event Poster

Research
Ideation and Exploration
Iterations
Final Poster

Research

GOLDEN GATE PARK OCTOBER 2023

advocate	create	learn	relax	21+
10.13 34th Annual Run for Vision 5k Peacock Meadow 6:30AM–9:00AM $50 to run or walk in 5k, 100% goes to the cause Join ophthalmologists, eye bankers, donor family members, and corneal transplant recipients as they show their support for the Eye Bank Association of America.	10.07 Tablet Weaving with the SFPL Bookmobile SF Botanical Garden 12:30PM–2:30PM Free The SFPL bookmobile makes a stop at the Garden to present an exploration in ancient tablet weaving, where participants will learn how to assemble, thread, and operate a portable weaving loom. Explore fibrous plants that are perfect for weaving.	10.12 Litquake at the Garden Redwood Grove at SF Botanical Garden 12:30PM–3:00PM Free with a Garden Ticket An afternoon of discussions with two separate events. Big Lonely Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Great Trees runs from 12 PM – 1:30PM. Author Harley Rustad will touch upon a host of issues, ranging from First Nations land and resource rights to the logging industry. Peg Alford Pursell and Leslie Card Roberts will speak about the mysteries of forests from 2:00PM – 3:00PM.	10.05 Guided Trail & Nature Walk Stow Lake 10:00AM–12:00PM Free Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy an exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park. Walks are free.	10.17 Seismic NightLife California Academy of Sciences 6:00PM–10:00PM 21+ Event To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with '80s culture and a trip back in time. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.
10.20 Walk to End Lupus Now GGP Music Concierge 8:30AM Check-in Time To help raise money for lupus research, spread awareness, and increase public support, join the Lupus Foundation of America's Walk to End Lupus Now in San Francisco. Participants travel along a 2-mile route. The ceremony is at 9:30AM and the walk begins at 10:00AM.	10.10 Pints and Plants: Kokedama Workshop SF Botanical Garden 6:00PM–8:00PM Admission: $45 This hands-on botanical workshop takes a look at kokedama (which translates into "moss ball"). It's a traditional Japanese gardening technique that dates back centuries. You will receive instruction on how to create your own using an assortment of lovely houseplants.	10.19 Free Saturdays: Celebrating National Disability Employment Awareness Month de Young museum 10:00PM–3:00PM Free Event In celebration of National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM), de Young hosts a reading and book signing with the authors of two children's books that touch upon the hardships, difficulties, and everyday contributions of the disabled. Pizzoni Mural Room.	10.06 Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert of 2019 Spreckels Temple of Music 1:00PM–2:30PM Free The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969."	10.18 Botanicals and Brews: Rare and Unusual Conservatory of Flowers 6:30PM–11:00PM General Admission $29 • Master Brewer Package $49 21+ Event Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plant collection with a unique brew in hand from the Rare Barrel or Berryessa Brewing Company. Food truck edibles from Curry Up Now and Aunty Vicky's.
10.26 Free Saturdays: District Highlight (SCRAP & Chula Productions) de Young museum 12:00PM–3:00PM This month's highlighted district is District 10. Participate in a jewelry making project with Chula Productions. All materials come from SCRAP, a non-profit creative reuse center in the Bayview District.	10.26 World Veg Fest SF County Fair Building 10:00AM–6:00PM The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities is planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.	10.23 Celebration Garden Ribbon-Cutting San Francisco Botanical Garden 11:00AM–12:00PM Free A ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Celebration Garden. Come see iconic plants and other delightful specimens.	10.13 Sound Meditation in the Garden: Full Moon Welcome SF Botanical Garden 4:00PM–5:15PM $14 • $25 Clear the mind with a wave of sounds that include chimes, crystal bowls, ocean wave drums, and planetary gongs. The meditation takes place in the outdoors on the grass. Bring along a yoga mat, blanket, or pillow. Tickets may be purchased here.	10.10 NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim California Academy of Sciences 6:00PM–10:00PM 21+ Event Welcome to the final installment of NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Kadija Bonet. Other music comes courtesy of a DJ set by Arumi & Lil Wailu. Between sets, take in the interactive AR app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.
10.23 "Creatures of the NightLife" California Academy of Sciences 6:00PM–10:00PM Free 21+ Event Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative eats, refreshments, and dancing with DJ Omar Perez. In the Philippine Coral Reef, take a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

TOM PETTY & THE HEARTBREAKERS

40

SPECIAL GUEST
JOE WALSH

40TH ANNIVERSARY TOUR

04.20.17 OKLAHOMA CITY, OK	05.29.17 MORRISON, CO	07.02.17 CANANDAIGUA, NY
04.22.17 DALLAS, TX	05.30.17 MORRISON, CO	07.05.17 MILWAUKEE, WI
04.23.17 LITTLE ROCK, AR	06.02.17 KANSAS CITY, MO	07.06.17 MILWAUKEE, WI
04.25.17 NASHVILLE, TN	06.03.17 ST. PAUL MN	07.09.16 LONDON, UK
04.27.17 ATLANTA, GA	06.07.17 COLUMBUS, OH	07.15.17 TORONTO, ON
04.29.17 HOUSTON, TX	06.09.17 PITTSBURGH, PA	07.18.17 CLARKSTON, MI
04.30.17 NEW ORLEANS, LA	06.10.17 CLEVELAND, OH	07.20.17 BOSTON, MA
05.02.17 AUSTIN, TX	06.12.17 CINCINNATI, OH	07.21.17 BOSTON, MA
05.05.17 WEST PALM BEACH, FL	06.14.17 HARTFORD, CT	07.23.17 BALTIMORE, MD
05.06.17 TAMPA, FL	06.16.17 NEWARK, NJ	07.26.17 FOREST HILLS, NY
05.08.17 MEMPHIS, TN	06.17.17 HUNTER MOUNTAIN, NY	07.27.17 FOREST HILLS, NY
05.10.17 CHAMPAIGN, IL	06.29.17 CHICAGO, IL	07.29.17 PHILADELPHIA, PA
05.12.17 ST. LOUIS, MO	07.01.17 PHILADELPHIA, PA	08.17.17 VANCOUVER, BC
05.13.17 INDIANAPOLIS, IN	07.02.17 CANANDAIGUA, NY	08.19.17 SEATTLE, WA

 Dates, Venues, Times and Opening Hours are subject to change. Please refer to venue or ticket provider for updates.

www.tompetty.com

Ideation and Exploration

Golden Gate Park

October 2023 Events

- 5 Guided Trail & Nature Walk
10:00am-12:00pm, Stow Lake, Free
Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy an exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park.
- 6 Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert of 2023
1:00-2:30pm, Spreckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1963."
- 7 Tablet Weaving with the SFPL Bookmobile
12:30-2:30pm, SF Botanical Garden, Free
The SFPL bookmobile makes a stop at the Garden to present an exploration in ancient tablet weaving, where participants will learn how to assemble, thread, and operate a portable weaving loom. Explore fibrous plants that are perfect for weaving.
- 10 Pints and Plants: Kokedama Workshop
6:00-8:00pm, SF Botanical Garden, $45
This hands-on botanical workshop takes a look at kokedama (which translates into "moss ball"). It's a traditional Japanese gardening technique that dates back centuries. You will receive instruction on how to create your own using an assortment of lovely houseplants.
- NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
6:00-10:00pm, California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Welcome to the final installment of NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Kadja Bonet. Other music comes courtesy of a DJ set by Arun & Li Wafa. Between sets, take in the interactive AR app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.
- 12 Litquake at the Garden
12:00-2:30pm, Redwood Grove at SF Botanical Garden Free with Garden Ticket
At 2:00, Big Lonely Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Great Trees. Author Harley Rustad will touch upon a host of issues, ranging from First Nations land and resource rights to the logging industry. At 2:00pm, Peg Alford Pursell and Leslie Carol Roberts will speak about the mysteries of forests.
- 13 34th Annual Run for Vision 5k
6:30-9:00am, Peacock Meadow, $50
Join ophthalmologists, eye bankers, donor family members, and corneal transplant recipients as they show their support for the Eye Bank Association of America.
- Sound Meditation in the Garden: Full Moon Welcome
4:00-5:00pm, SF Botanical Garden, $14-25
Clear the mind with a wave of sounds that include chimes, crystal bowls, ocean wave drums, and planetary gongs. The meditation takes place in the outdoors on the grass. Bring along a yoga mat, blanket, or pillow.
- Full Moon Walk
6:00-8:00pm, SF Botanical Garden, $28 members, $30
This is a docent-led, after-hours tour. The flowers and foliage of the Garden have a whole different glow to them when viewed in the light of a full moon. Bring along a flashlight, so you don't miss a thing.
- 17 Seismic NightLife
6:00-10:00pm, California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with '80s culture and a trip back in time. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.
- 18 Botanicals and Brews: Rare and Unusual
6:30-10:00pm, California Academy of Sciences, $29 General Admission, $49 Master Brewer Package, 21+
Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plant collection with a unique brew in hand from The Rare Barrel or Benzessa Brewing Company. Food truck cables from Curly Up Now and Aunty Vicki's.
- 19 Free Saturdays: Celebrating National Disability Employment Awareness Month
10:00-12:00pm, de Young Museum, Free
In celebration of National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM), de Young hosts a reading and book signing with the authors of two children's books that touch upon the hardships, difficulties, and everyday contributions of the disabled. Piazzoni Mural Room.
- 20 Walk to End Lupus Now
8:30am-12:00pm, GGP Music Concourse, Free
To help raise money for lupus research, spread awareness, and increase public support, join the Lupus Foundation of America's Walk to End Lupus Now in San Francisco. Participants travel along a 2-mile route. Check-in for the walk is 8:30 a.m. with a 9:30 a.m. ceremony to follow. The walk begins at 10 a.m.
- Celebration Garden Ribbon-Cutting
11:00am-12:00pm, SF Botanical Garden, Free
A ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Celebration Garden, which will be held from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. Come see iconic plants and other delightful specimens. It's free to attend.
- Cyberspace NightLife
6:00-10:00pm, California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Cat lovers will enjoy the CatVideoFest. Cybersecurity expert Betty Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, networks, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog meme-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.
- 26 Free Saturdays: District Highlight (SCRAP & Chula Productions)
12:00-2:00pm, de Young Museum, Free
This month's highlighted district is District 10. Participate in a jewelry making project with Chula Productions. All materials come from SCRAP, a non-profit creative reuse center in the Bayview District.
- World Veg Fest
10:00am-6:00pm, SF County Fair Building, Free
The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities is planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.
- 31 Creatures of the NightLife
6:00-10:00pm, California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative eats, refreshments, and dancing with DJ Omar Perez. In the Philippine Coral Reef, take a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

Golden Gate Park

October 2023 Events

Entertainment

- October 6, 1:00-2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert of 2019
Spreckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1963."

- October 10, 6:00-10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Welcome to the final installment of NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Kadja Bonet. Other music comes courtesy of a DJ set by Arun & Li Wafa. Between sets, take in the interactive AR app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

- October 17, 6:30-10:00pm
Seismic NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with '80s culture and a trip back in time. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.

- October 23, 11:00am-12:00pm
Celebration Garden
Ribbon-Cutting
SF Botanical Garden, Free
A ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Celebration Garden. Come see iconic plants and other delightful specimens.

- October 25, 6:00-10:00pm
CyberSpace NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Cat lovers will enjoy the CatVideoFest. Cybersecurity expert Betty Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, networks, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog meme-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.

- October 31, 6:00-10:00pm
Creatures of the NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative eats, refreshments, and dancing with DJ Omar Perez. In the Philippine Coral Reef, take a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

Wellness

- October 5, 10:00-12:00pm
Guided Trail & Nature Walk
Stow Lake, Free

- Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy an exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park.

- October 12, 12:00-3:30pm
Litquake at the Garden
Redwood Grove at SF Botanical Garden
Free with Garden Ticket

- This is a docent-led, after-hours tour. The flowers and foliage of the Garden have a whole different glow to them when viewed in the light of a full moon. Bring along a flashlight, so you don't miss a thing.

- October 13, 6:00-8:00pm
Full Moon Walk
SF Botanical Garden, $28 members, $30 non-members

- This is a docent-led, after-hours tour. The flowers and foliage of the Garden have a whole different glow to them when viewed in the light of a full moon. Bring along a flashlight, so you don't miss a thing.

- October 17, 10:00-12:00pm
Tablet Weaving with the SFPL Bookmobile
SF Botanical Garden, Free

- The SFPL bookmobile makes a stop at the Garden to present an exploration in ancient tablet weaving, where participants will learn how to assemble, thread, and operate a portable weaving loom. Explore fibrous plants that are perfect for weaving.

- October 19, 1:00-3:00pm
Pints and Plants: Kokedama
SCRAP & Chula Productions

- In celebration of National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM), de Young hosts a reading and book signing with the authors of two children's books that touch upon the hardships, difficulties, and everyday contributions of the disabled. Piazzoni Mural Room.

- October 26, 12:00-3:00pm
Free Saturdays: District Highlight (SCRAP & Chula Productions)

- de Young Museum, Free

- This month's highlighted district is District 10. Participants come from SCRAP, a non-profit creative reuse center in the Bayview District.

October 5, 10:00am-12:00pm Guided Trail & Nature Walk

Stow Lake, Free

Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy an exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park.

October 13, 6:30-9:00am 34th Annual Run for Vision 5k Peacock Meadow, $50

Join ophthalmologists, eye bankers, donor family members, and corneal transplant recipients as they show their support for the Eye Bank Association of America.

October 12, 12:00-3:30pm Litquake at the Garden

Redwood Grove at SF Botanical Garden Free with Garden Ticket

An afternoon of discussions with two separate events. Big Lonely Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Great Trees, runs from 12:00 to 1:30pm. Author Harley Rustad will touch upon a host of issues, ranging from First Nations land and resource rights to the logging industry. Peg Alford Pursell and Leslie Carol Roberts will speak about the mysteries of forests from 2:00 to 3:30pm. These events are free with a Garden ticket.

October 13, 6:00-8:00pm Full Moon Walk

SF Botanical Garden, $28 members, $30 non-members

This is a docent-led, after-hours tour. The flowers and foliage of the Garden have a whole different glow to them when viewed in the light of a full moon. Bring along a flashlight, so you don't miss a thing.

Iterations

Golden Gate Park October 2023 Events

Entertainment

October 6, 1:00-2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert
Speckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969".

October 6, 6:00-10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Witness the final installation of the NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 17, 6:00-10:00pm
Sciencie NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with science, art, and music. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.

October 18, 6:00-11:00pm
Botanicals and Brews: Rare and Unusual
Conservatory of Flowers, $29 General admission, $49 Master Brewer package, 21+
Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plants, including the world's rarest bromeliads. Bar or Beryessa Brewing Company. Food trucks: Baked from Carry Up Now and Vicky's. Food trucks from Carry Up Now and Vicky's.

October 25, 6:00-10:00pm
Cyberpunk NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Car lovers will enjoy the CaVidéoFest. Cybersecurity expert Betty Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, phones, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog memory-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
World Veg Fest
SF County Fair Building, Free
The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities are planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
Creatures of the NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative arts, refreshments, and dancing DJ Chura. Party in the Plaza! Come see a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

Golden Gate Park October 2023 Events

Entertainment

October 6, 1:00-2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert
Speckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969".

October 6, 10:00am-12:00pm
Guided Trail & Nature Walk
Stow Lake, Free
Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy the exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park.

October 12, 6:30-9:00am
Living at the Garden
Botanic Garden & SF Botanical Garden Free with Garden Ticket
An afternoon of discussions with two separate events: Big Louie Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Willow Trees, presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 13, 6:00-10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Witness the final installation of the NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 18, 6:00-8:00pm
Sciencie NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with science, art, and music. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.

October 19, 6:00-11:00pm
Botanicals and Brews: Rare and Unusual
Conservatory of Flowers, $29 General admission, $49 Master Brewer package, 21+
Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plants, including the world's rarest bromeliads. Bar or Beryessa Brewing Company. Food trucks: Baked from Carry Up Now and Vicky's. Food trucks from Carry Up Now and Vicky's.

October 25, 6:00-10:00pm
Cyberpunk NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Car lovers will enjoy the CaVidéoFest. Cybersecurity expert Betty Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, phones, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog memory-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
World Veg Fest
SF County Fair Building, Free
The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities are planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
Creatures of the NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative arts, refreshments, and dancing DJ Chura. Party in the Plaza! Come see a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

Golden Gate Park October 2023 Events

Entertainment

October 6, 1:00-2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert
Speckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969".

October 5, 10:00am-12:00pm
Guided Trail & Nature Walk
Stow Lake, Free
Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy the exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park.

October 7, 12:30-2:30pm
34th Annual Run for Vision 5k
Panzer Meadow, $50
Join ophthalmologists, eye bankers, donor family members, and concerned transplant recipients as they show their support for the Eye Bank Association of America.

October 10, 6:00-10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Witness the final installation of the NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 13, 6:30-9:00am
Living at the Garden
Botanic Garden & SF Botanical Garden Free with Garden Ticket
An afternoon of discussions with two separate events: Big Louie Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Willow Trees, presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 13, 6:30-9:00am
34th Annual Run for Vision 5k
Panzer Meadow, $50
An afternoon of discussions with two separate events: Big Louie Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Willow Trees, presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 15, 6:00-9:00pm
Sound Meditation in the Garden
Full Moon Welcome
SF Botanical Garden, $28 members, $30 non-members
This month's highlighted district is District 10. The flower and foliage of the Garden have a whole different glow when viewed in the light of a full moon. Bring along a flashlight, so you don't miss a thing.

October 18, 6:00-8:00pm
Sciencie NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with science, art, and music. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.

October 19, 6:00-11:00pm
Botanicals and Brews: Rare and Unusual
Conservatory of Flowers, $29 General admission, $49 Master Brewer package, 21+
Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plants, including the world's rarest bromeliads. Bar or Beryessa Brewing Company. Food trucks: Baked from Carry Up Now and Vicky's. Food trucks from Carry Up Now and Vicky's.

October 25, 6:00-10:00pm
Cyberpunk NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Car lovers will enjoy the CaVidéoFest. Cybersecurity expert Betty Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, phones, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog memory-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
World Veg Fest
SF County Fair Building, Free
The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities are planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
Creatures of the NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative arts, refreshments, and dancing DJ Chura. Party in the Plaza! Come see a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

Golden Gate Park October 2023 Events

Entertainment

October 6, 1:00-2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert
Speckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969".

October 8, 10:00am-12:00pm
Guided Trail & Nature Walk
Stow Lake, Free
Every first Saturday, locals gather at Stow Lake to enjoy the exploration of nature and a relaxing walk about the park.

October 10, 6:00-10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Witness the final installation of the NightLife LIVE for 2019, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 12, 12:00-3:30pm
Living at the Garden
Botanic Garden & SF Botanical Garden Free with Garden Ticket
An afternoon of discussions with two separate events: Big Louie Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Willow Trees, presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 13, 6:30-9:00am
34th Annual Run for Vision 5k
Panzer Meadow, $50
An afternoon of discussions with two separate events: Big Louie Doug: The Story of One of Canada's Last Willow Trees, presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Karina Gauvin. Other acts will be announced. A DJ set by DJ Lili will be provided. Refreshments available in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

October 15, 6:00-9:00pm
Sound Meditation in the Garden
Full Moon Welcome
SF Botanical Garden, $28 members, $30 non-members
This month's highlighted district is District 10. The flower and foliage of the Garden have a whole different glow when viewed in the light of a full moon. Bring along a flashlight, so you don't miss a thing.

October 18, 6:00-8:00pm
Sciencie NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with science, art, and music. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.

October 19, 6:00-11:00pm
Botanicals and Brews: Rare and Unusual
Conservatory of Flowers, $29 General admission, $49 Master Brewer package, 21+
Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plants, including the world's rarest bromeliads. Bar or Beryessa Brewing Company. Food trucks: Baked from Carry Up Now and Vicky's. Food trucks from Carry Up Now and Vicky's.

October 25, 6:00-10:00pm
Cyberpunk NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Car lovers will enjoy the CaVidéoFest. Cybersecurity expert Betty Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, phones, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog memory-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
World Veg Fest
SF County Fair Building, Free
The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities are planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.

October 26, 6:00-10:00pm
Creatures of the NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative arts, refreshments, and dancing DJ Chura. Party in the Plaza! Come see a snapshot of the interactive Dia de Los Muertos altar.

Final Poster

Entertainment

Friday 6, 1:00 to 2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert
Spreckels Temple of Music, Free
The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969."

Tuesday 10, 6:00 to 10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Welcome to the final installment of NightLife LIVE, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Kadja Bonet. Other music comes courtesy of a DJ set by Arumi & Lil Waifu. Between sets, take in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

Tuesday 17, 6:00 to 10:00pm
Seismic NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
To commemorate the 30th anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake, the Academy is hosting a night filled with '80s culture and a trip back in time. Historic images, discussions with earthquake experts, and intriguing fossil specimens. Music provided by New Wave City DJs.

Wednesday 18, 6:30 to 11:00pm
Botanicals and Brews:
Rare and Unusual
Conservatory of Flowers, Free, 21+
$29 General Admission
$49 Master Botanist Package
Explore the Conservatory's rare and unusual plant collection with a unique brew in hand from The Rare Barrel or Berryessa Brewing Company. Food truck edibles from Curry Up Now and Aunty Vicki's.

Monday 23, 11:00am to 12:00pm
Celebration Garden
Ribbon-Cutting
SF Botanical Garden, Free
A ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Celebration Garden. Come see iconic plants and other delightful specimens.

Tuesday, 6:00 to 10:00pm
CyberSpace NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Cat Lovers will enjoy the Cat Video Fest. Cybersecurity expert Betsy Cooper will be on hand to discuss computers, networks, and data investigations. SCRAP hosts an analog mème-making station. Music by Turbo Drive DJs.

Thursday 26, 6:00am to 6:00pm
World Veg Fest
SF County Fair Building, Free
The San Francisco Veg Society is hosting the 20th annual World Veg Fest, where a new crop of entertainment, food, speakers, chefs, exhibitors, and activities is planned for the entire family. Topics of discussion include animal rights, social justice, and the environment.

Tuesday 31, 6:00 to 10:00pm
Creatures of the NightLife
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+
Get haunted by live storytelling of ghost stories, including near-death experiences. Expect creative eats, refreshments, and dancing with DJ Omar Perez. In the Philippine Coral Reef, take a snapshot of the interactive Día de Los Muertos altar.

Entertainment

Friday 6, 1:00 to 2:30pm
Final Golden Gate Park Band Concert

Spreckels Temple of Music, Free

The Golden Gate Park Band is hosting the last concert of the year, which closes out its 137th season at the park. The theme for this season finale is "Remembering 1969."

Tuesday 10, 6:00 to 10:00pm
NightLife LIVE: Nick Hakim
California Academy of Sciences, Free, 21+

Welcome to the final installment of NightLife LIVE, co-presented by Noise Pop. Performances by Brooklyn musician Nick Hakim and soprano Kadja Bonet. Other music comes courtesy of a DJ set by Arumi & Lil Waifu. Between sets, take in the interactive AR art app from NightLife artist-in-residence Maggie West.

